

YouTube Channel Creator Guide

Your YouTube (YT) channel and videos have been archived by altCensored.com (altCen). The channel and video meta-data is stored at altCen, the videos (with torrents) are archived at the Internet Archive (archive.org/IA).

Anyone can now download your entire channel or use embeds (similar to YT) to play your videos on any website.

Use the search bar at the top of every altCen page to locate channels and videos. Text and YT channel or video id's can be searched for.

Downloading Videos:

Channel RSS feeds contain torrent links, allowing an RSS feed capable torrent client (e.g. qbittorrent) to both browse and download items. The feed is linked from the RSS icon (under channel name) on every channel page. For example:

https://www.altcensored.com/channel/UCDEFA\_8ZyngmQXUvw7MwI9w/feed

Viewing and Embedding Videos:

Videos can be viewed or embedded from altCen, IA or YT using the following syntax (more info on IA embed - <https://archive.org/help/video.php>):

<https://altcensored.com/watch?v=yN4Uu00ImTg>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yN4Uu00ImTg>

<https://archive.org/details/youtube-yN4Uu00ImTg>

<https://www.altcensored.com/embed/yN4Uu00ImTg>

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/yN4Uu00ImTg>

<https://archive.org/embed/youtube-yN4Uu00ImTg>

The string at the end of the embed (yN4Uu00ImTg) is the unique YT videoID (<https://developers.google.com/youtube/v3/docs/videos>), and is included in the channel RSS feed.

Please consider promoting, supporting, and contributing to non-profit, open sourced altCensored.com: "together we show what they hide".