

Internet Archive Restricts Access

The 200,000+ monthly users of altCensored will no longer be able to watch some censored YouTube videos because of new 'Log In' restrictions by Internet Archive.

We are working to self-host our most popular videos and urge users to download their preferred videos (see the FAQ on our 'About' page).

All new items and many of the more than 1.5 million videos uploaded by altCensored to the Internet Archive over the previous 5+ years now require a user account to access.

We urge Internet Archive to once again make these videos freely available to the world.

Use 'info@archive.org' to comment on their mission of 'Universal Access to All Knowledge'.
